ECHO

Taking a week off this summer, relax, enjoy the evening! There will still be High School Bible study in the morning, just no ECHO in the evening at 7pm. Read a book! Call a friend! We'll be back next week!

Rock Climbing

July 21st, 10:00am - 12:00pm
$10/person

We're going indoor rock climbing at Crux South Austin (121 Pickle Rd, Austin, TX), meeting up at the church at 10:00am and then driving together down to Crux in South Austin (it's right off South Congress). It is a 45 minute drive, so we won't begin climbing until 11:00am and will plan on climbing for one hour! Please bring $10 to help offset the cost of climbing and renting gear.

You must sign-up ahead of time! A safety waiver is required to climb, and participants under 18 must have parents sign-off as well. I will email you the forms once you sign up! Parents: We are going to carpool; please let me know if you are able to drive.

Music Lessons Starting Again

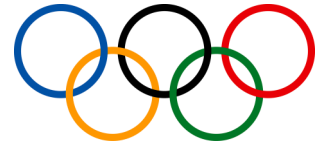

Every Wednesday, 6:30pm - 7:00pm

Each Wednesday 30 minute before High School ECHO we will be gathering together to learn and play some music. Have you ever wanted to learn: guitar, bass, piano, ukulele, mandolin, accordion, flute, banjo, or some other instrument? There are several instruments available to try out and borrow, or bring your own!

ECHO Olympics

July 21st, 7:00pm - 8:30pm

Come compete in some non-traditional Olympic competitions (some of which are quite frankly a little strange). We will be putting a new twist on many classic summer Olympic sports including: tennis, basketball, soccer, and a very unique triathlon. Come and compete for a chance to take home a medal!

Cooking Together

July 28th, 7:00pm - 8:30pm

Wear some clothes that might get a bit messy, and bring an apron if you own one! We are going to set up individual cooking stations in the activity center and try our hand at chopping, peeling, slicing and dicing. We're going to be making our very own culinary creations, so come hungry!

Back-to-School Tailgate & Cookout

Sunday, Aug. 15th

5:00pm - 8:00pm

Come out to the church parking lot to meet up with some folks and have one last afternoon off to relax and hang out with friends before school starts again this fall. This is a great time for all of the incoming freshman to get to know other high school students at Faith, and for the older youth to pass down wisdom and advice to new kids that are starting high school for the first time. We're firing up the grill and dinner's on us! Hamburgers, hotdogs, chips, and cold drinks provided!

Sunday School Changes

Every Sunday, 9:45am—10:45am

Starting Sunday, August 1st, high school students will be back in our old youth room, middle school students will be back in the middle school room across the hall. Hot coffee and fresh donuts provided!

Things to think about...

During our most recent high school Bible study, we met up at Lamppost Coffee in downtown Georgetown and read together Luke 6:17-26 and talked about what it meant to be rich, poor, hungry, and how that impacts "the good life" that we may be living or dreaming of living. We all went around the table and got a chance to tell everyone how "good" we felt our life was right now on a scale of 1-10. Where would you say that you are right now? A solid 7? Barely even a 4? No matter how things are going for us, or what we feel we're going through, Jesus is with us. He experienced the whole of human emotion, He lived through moments of 9's and 10's and terrible moments of a flat out 1. I encourage you to read a little bit of Luke 6:17-26 and ask meditate on how the words of Jesus speak to the place you're in right now in life.
