

Mid-Week Women's Bible Study:
"Now that Faith Has Come: A Study of Galatians"
Wednesdays at 10:30
February 15-May 10

The apostle Paul didn't plan to go to Galatia. God used a physical ailment to guide him there, carrying the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ with him. The relationship Paul would build with the Galatian converts – and his determination for the truth of the gospel to be preserved among them – led to one of the most passionate letters in the New Testament. Paul would not sit quietly by and let those who had been liberated by Christ's glorious gospel submit again to a yoke of slavery. He would send a letter with the volume turned up- calling believers to stand firm in the truth, stay bold in love and walk by the Spirit. He would remind them what it looked like to live for God's approval rather than human approval. The eternal words God entrusted to Paul for the churches of Galatia are just as needed today as they were when the ink was still wet on the ancient pages.

The Mid-week Women's Bible Study will resume on Wed., February 15 at 10:30 with a 13-week consecutive study entitled "Now That Faith Has Come – A Study of Galatians" written by Beth Moore and Melissa Moore.
