IDEAS WORTH SPREADING

We are beginning a new series where a different student is invited on the first Wednesday of each month to share with everyone about something they are passionate about. They will be given an opportunity to present about any subject they love talking about: fishing, photography, Disney movies, soccer, etymology and history of words, art, etc., you name it! Literally! Use a presentation and/or bring in hands-on examples. To sign up for a spot in a future month, contact Austin Angerman (austin@FLCMS.org)

ECHO is canceled on Wednesday, October 25th due to the church Fall Festival that weekend. Come join us for the Fall Festival that Saturday!
